Action Causes Gravest Crisis for Allied Organization

PARIS (U.P.) - The French delegation walked out of a NATO meeting today in protest against British and American arms shipments to Tunisia. It was the gravest crisis in the eight-year history of the Atlantic organization.

France called for an emergency meeting of the NATO foreign ministers to consider the situation, and a meeting of the permanent council of NATO was summoned for Saturday at its Paris headquarters to lay the foundation for such a meeting.

Do vitamins stay potent?

Vitamins come lots of ways-powders, liquids, some in pills, some in capsules. Some must be refrigerated to maintain full strength. Some have limited storage life. Others should not be mixed until just before taking. And so on.

We bring all this to your attention because "vitamin preparations" are being sold all kinds of ways these days. You hear offers on the air. You see offers in print. You even find salesmen ringing your doorbell.

For reasons mentioned above, the proper place to obtain vitamin preparations is your registered pharmacy where professional knowledge assures your getting full vitamin value.

SPRINGFIELD. III. -With the hunting season for Bobwhite quail beginning Saturday, Nov. 16, Director Gler D. Palmer of the Illinois Department of Conservation today reminded hunters that the quail may be hunted from sunrise to sunset, and that the season will end at sunset on December 25.

Daily limit on quail is eight and after opening day it is legal to have 16 quail in possession.

According to a survey completed by the Game Management division of the department in September, quail populations, as reported by conservation officers and farmers. appear to be in most cases at least as good or better than the populations at this time in 1956.
